

UConn Pre-College Summer (PCS)
HESA Graduate Assistant Job Description
Academic Year 2026-2027

POSITION OVERVIEW: In a team-centered collaboration with the Pre-College Summer (PCS) Director, Associate Director, and other GA's, this PCS Graduate Assistant (GA) is a full-time (20 hour per week) position in the Office of Early College Programs. The incumbent in this position is responsible for supporting the planning of the Pre-College Summer Program during the academic year. The successful candidate should be energetic, motivated, and willing to take on tasks to build and develop a rapidly growing University Program. The GA will work closely with University faculty, staff, undergraduate and graduate students, as well as high school counselors, students, and parents. This is a one-year assistantship, with second year renewal pending a satisfactory performance after the first year.

PCS PROGRAM OVERVIEW: UConn Pre-College Summer (PCS) is committed to providing a safe and supportive living-learning environment, allowing rising high school juniors and seniors to explore their academic interests, while gaining knowledge of institutional activities and social environments on a college campus. PCS serves as a non-credit exploratory experience where students will gain an understanding of the college classroom with engaging University faculty and explore nuances and areas of college-life at a nationally ranked public University.

Academic Year Duties and Responsibilities:

- Coordinate and execute search, selection, hiring, and onboarding of talented summer residential staff
- Assist planning and organization of academic, leadership, and social student exploratory workshops
- Collaborate with marketing specialists for electronic marketing including website design and development, social media, and InfusionSoft client database
- Assist with interpersonal marketing through attending expos & fairs, webinars & orientations, and following up with prospective students
- Benchmark other national Pre-College programs considering components of student applications, costs & fees, financial assistance programs, staffing (Program and residential), social programming, course offerings, etc.
- Consider and infuse HESA coursework into Program offerings and practices, bearing in mind issues of admission, access, advising, programming, student development, and counseling
- Respond to student and parent inquiries via email, phone, and online inquiries
- Assist with relevant Office of Early College Programs (OECF) projects such as scholarship reviews and other large student or faculty events
- Other duties assigned by the Director and Associate Director in addition to assisting with general office tasks

Required Qualifications:

- Enrollment in the UConn Higher Education and Student Affairs (HESA) graduate program
- Excellent interpersonal communication and writing skills, with the ability to work on a highly collaborative team
- High degree of professionalism

Preferred Qualifications:

- An understanding of the needs of, and interest in, working with high school juniors/seniors
- Prior experience working in a residence hall setting and/or a program with minors
- A desire to work collaboratively as part of a highly functioning team in a fast-paced environment
- Experience utilizing a variety of software platforms including customer relationship management, web development, conference and event management, and enrollment management
